Dear Sir or Madam:

Reference is made to (i) the Limited Partnership Agreement of Integra Multifamily Opportunity Fund LP, a Delaware series limited partnership (the "Partnership"), as amended, restated, supplemented or modified from time to time (together with all schedules, Exhibits and Appendices thereto, the "Partnership Agreement"), by and among Integra Multifamily Fund GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and general partner of the Partnership (the "General Partner"), and the Limited Partners thereto; (ii) the Confidential Private Placement Memorandum of the Partnership (as amended, restated, supplemented or modified from time to time, the "Memorandum"); and (iii) this Subscription Agreement, dated as of the date set forth above (this "Agreement"), by and among the General Partner, on behalf of the Partnership and itself as general partner of the Partnership, and the undersigned subscribing investor (the "Investor"). The Partnership Agreement, the Memorandum, any Side Letters (defined below) and this Agreement are collectively referred to herein as the "Offering Materials". Capitalized terms used, but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings given them in the Partnership Agreement.

The Investor wishes to become a limited partner of the Partnership (a "Limited Partner") and to purchase a limited partnership interest in the Partnership (an "Interest") upon the terms and conditions set forth herein and hereby subscribes and agrees as follows:

1. Subscription for a Limited Partnership Interest in the Partnership. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement (including the Series designation described in Section 18) and in the Partnership Agreement, the Investor agrees (i) to purchase from the Partnership an Interest indicated on the signature page to this Agreement in the amount set forth therein (except to the extent that an Interest in a lesser amount has been accepted by the General Partner pursuant to Section 10) at a purchase price equal to 100% of such Interest, payable or contributed in the manner and at the times as set forth in the Partnership Agreement, (ii) to become a party to and be bound by all terms and provisions of the Partnership Agreement (as amended in accordance with its terms) and (iii) to become a Limited Partner of the Partnership and of any applicable Series. The Investor, in agreeing to adhere to and be bound by the Partnership Agreement, also acknowledges and agrees to the grant of a power of attorney in favor of the General Partner in accordance with Section 4.9 of the Partnership Agreement.

2. Representations and Covenants of the Investor. The Investor hereby represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Partnership and the General Partner as follows:

(a) Suitability. THE INVESTOR HAS READ CAREFULLY AND UNDERSTANDS THE OFFERING MATERIALS AND HAS CONSULTED ITS OWN ATTORNEY, ACCOUNTANT, TAX ADVISOR OR INVESTMENT ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE INVESTMENT CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND ITS SUITABILITY FOR THE INVESTOR. ANY SPECIFIC ACKNOWLEDGMENT SET FORTH BELOW WITH RESPECT TO ANY STATEMENT CONTAINED IN THE OFFERING MATERIALS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO LIMIT THE GENERALITY OF THIS REPRESENTATION AND WARRANTY.

(b) Opportunity to Verify Information: Review of Offering Materials; Use of Side Letters. The Investor acknowledges that representatives of the Partnership have made available to the Investor, during the course of this transaction and prior to the purchase of the Interest, the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from them concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of the Interests described in the Offering Materials, and to obtain any additional information necessary to verify the information contained in the Offering Materials or otherwise relative to the proposed activities of the Partnership or to otherwise evaluate the merits and risks of an investment in the Interest. The Investor has been furnished with, and has carefully read, the copies of the Offering Materials, together with any supplements or amendments thereto issued through the date hereof, and has been given the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, the General Partner or any other person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the Partnership, the General Partner or Integra Opportunity Fund Manager LLC (the "Investment Manager") (each an "Affiliate" and collectively the "Affiliates") concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of Interests and other matters pertaining to an investment in the Partnership and has obtained from the General Partner and its representatives any additional information necessary to evaluate the merits and risks of an investment in the Partnership requested by the Investor to verify the accuracy of information furnished to it about the Partnership. The Investor acknowledges that other investors may have received different information than the Investor regarding the Partnership and the offering of the Interests, including because other investors may have asked additional questions of, or received different information from, the General Partner, the Investment Manager and their representatives. The Investor acknowledges and agrees that: (i) the Partnership has only recently been formed and has no financial or operating history; (ii) there are substantial risks and conflicts of interests incident to purchasing Interests, as summarized in the Offering Materials and hereby consents to such conflicts of interests and waives any claim in respect of the existence of any such conflicts of interest; (iii) the General Partner or any of its Affiliates shall receive substantial compensation in connection with the management of the Partnership; (iv) neither the General Partner nor any of its Affiliates has acted as or is an agent or employee of or has advised the Investor in connection with the investment in the Partnership by the Investor and (v) no federal, state, local or foreign agency has passed upon the Interests or made any finding or determination as to the fairness of this investment. In considering a subscription for an Interest, the Investor has evaluated for itself the risks and merits of such investment including the risks and conflicts of interests set forth in the Offering Materials, and is able to bear the economic risk of such investment, including a complete loss of capital, and in addition has not relied upon any representations made by, or other information (whether oral or written) furnished by or on behalf of, the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager, or any director, officer, employee, agent or Affiliate of such Persons, other than as set forth in the Offering Materials. The Investor acknowledges that it has not requested from, and is not relying on, the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager or any of their partners, members, officers, counsel, agents or representatives for any legal, investment or tax advice. The Investor has carefully considered and has, to the extent it believes necessary, discussed with its own legal, tax, accounting and financial advisers the suitability of an investment in the Partnership in light of its particular tax and financial situation, and has determined that the Interest being subscribed for hereunder is a suitable investment for the Investor. In addition, the Investor hereby acknowledges that the Partnership may enter, without the consent of any other Partners, into side letters and other agreements and arrangements ("Side Letters") with certain investors, including in connection with due diligence reviews, pursuant to which an investor may receive reports and have access to information regarding the Partnership's portfolio that might not be generally available to other Limited Partners. Such investors may be able to base their investment decisions on information that is not generally available to other Limited Partners. The Partnership may also enter into Side Letters with certain Limited Partners to allow such Limited Partners to fulfill certain regulatory or other obligations. Side Letters may also provide more favorable terms relating to fees.

(c) Purchase for Investment. The Investor understands and agrees: (i) that the Investor must bear the economic risk of its investment until the termination of the Partnership; (ii) that the Interest has not been registered under the Securities Act or under the applicable securities laws of any other jurisdiction, and, therefore, cannot be resold or otherwise disposed of unless it is subsequently registered under the Securities Act or such other applicable securities laws, unless an exemption from such registration is available; (iii) that the Partnership is not being registered as an "investment company" as the term "investment company" is defined in Section 3(a) of the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act"); (iv) that the Investor is (1) an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and (2) a "qualified purchaser" as defined in Section 2(a)(51) of the Investment Company Act. The Investor shall immediately inform the Partnership and the General Partner if it ceases to be an accredited investor at any point of time. The Investor further confirms that (A) the representations and the information provided by the Investor pursuant to the Accredited Investor Status Questionnaire are complete and accurate; (B) that the Investor is purchasing the Interest for its own account and without a view towards distribution thereof; (C) that the Investor shall not resell or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Interest purchased by the Investor, except as permitted by law, including without limitation, any regulations under the Securities Act or other applicable securities laws, and any and all applicable provisions of the Partnership Agreement; (D) that the transfer of the Interest by the Investor and the substitution of another Limited Partner for the Investor are restricted by the terms of the Partnership Agreement and the Securities Act; (E) that the Partnership does not have any intention of registering the Partnership as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act or of registering the Interest under the Securities Act or of supplying the information which may be necessary to enable the Investor to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Interest, and to the extent it relies on Section 3(c)(1) of the Investment Company Act, in computing the number of beneficial owners of Interest for purposes of Section 3(c)(1) of the Investment Company Act, the Partnership may, in certain circumstances, be required to count each beneficial owner of an entity if such entity owns 10% or more of the outstanding Interests; (F) that neither the General Partner nor its partners nor any other person or entity selected by the General Partner to act as agent or adviser of the Partnership with respect to managing the affairs of the Partnership shall be registered as an investment adviser under the United States Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"); and (G) that Rule 144 under the Securities Act is unlikely to be available as a basis for exemption from registration of the Interest in connection with the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or a portion of the Interest. The Investor understands that there is no public or other market for the Interest, and it is not anticipated that such a market shall ever develop. The Investor further understands that for the foregoing reasons, the Investor shall be required to retain ownership of the Interest and bear the economic risk of this investment for an indefinite period of time. The Investor hereby agrees that the Advisory Committee, on behalf of the Investor, is appointed and authorized to provide Advisers Act approvals, including any approvals required under Section 206(3) of the Advisers Act and any consent to potential conflicts of interest.

(d) Exhibits. The Investor has carefully reviewed, completed and signed, or caused its authorized representative to complete and sign, Exhibits A-I attached hereto and makes each of the representations set forth therein and such representations are true and correct in all respects.

(e) No Need for Liquidity. The Investor has no need for liquidity in connection with its purchase of the Interest, and is able to bear the risk of loss of its entire investment in the Interest.

(f) Investment Objectives and Advice. The purchase of the Interest by the Investor is consistent with the general investment objectives of the Investor. The Investor hereby acknowledges that it has not relied on the General Partner or any of its partners or affiliates for investment advice with respect to an investment in the Partnership.

(g) Securities Laws. The Investor received the Offering Materials and first learned of the Partnership in the state or other jurisdiction listed as the address of the Investor set forth on the Investor's signature page hereto, and intends that the securities laws of that state or other jurisdiction alone shall govern the offer and sale of the Interests to the Investor. If the Investor is not a resident of the United States, the Investor understands that it is the responsibility of the Investor to satisfy himself, herself or itself as to full observance of the laws of any relevant territory or jurisdiction outside of the United States in connection with the offer and sale of the Interest, including obtaining any required governmental or other consent and observing any other applicable legal, regulatory or other similar formalities. The Investor understands that no governmental agency or authority has passed upon or shall pass upon the offer or sale of the Interest or has made or shall make any finding or determination as to the fairness of this investment.

(h) Investment Company Act Representations. Except as otherwise disclosed to the Partnership in writing on or before the date hereof (which writing shall constitute a representation of the Investor hereunder), if the Investor is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited liability company, entity or other organization:

(1) The Investor was not, or shall not be, formed or "recapitalized" (as defined below in this Section 2(h)) for the specific purpose of acquiring the Interest;

(2) The Investor's stockholders, partners, members or other beneficial owners have no individual discretion as to their participation or non-participation in the Interest and shall have no individual discretion as to their participation or non-participation in particular investments made by the Partnership;

(3) The Investor has not and shall not invest more than 40% of its "committed capital" (as defined below in this Section 2(h)) in any single entity, including the Partnership;

(4) The Investor's beneficial owners did not and will not contribute additional capital (other than previously committed capital) for the purpose of purchasing Interests.

For purposes of this Section 2(h), the following definitions shall apply: "committed capital" includes all amounts which have been contributed to the Investor by its shareholders, partners, members or other equity holders plus all amounts which such persons remain obligated to contribute to it; and the term "recapitalized" shall include new investments made in the Investor solely for the purpose of financing its acquisition of the Interest and not made pursuant to a prior financial commitment.

(i) Power and Authority; No Conflicts. If the Investor is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited liability company or other organization or entity: (i) it has the requisite power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Partnership Agreement; (ii) the person signing this Agreement on behalf of the Investor has been duly authorized to execute this Agreement and the Partnership Agreement (including all appendices therein); and (iii) the execution, delivery and performance by the Investor of such agreements do not violate, or conflict with, the terms of any agreement or instrument to which the Investor is a party or by which it is bound. This Agreement has been duly executed by the Investor and constitutes, and the Partnership Agreement, when the Investor is admitted as a Limited Partner, shall constitute, a valid and legally binding agreement of the Investor enforceable against the Investor in accordance with their respective terms. The Investor has obtained all necessary consents, approvals and authorizations of government authorities and other persons required to be obtained in connection with its execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Partnership Agreement and the performance of its obligations hereunder and thereunder.

(j) Knowledge and Experience. The Investor and its purchaser representative (if any) currently have, and (unless the Investor has a purchaser representative) the Investor had immediately prior to receipt of any offer regarding the Partnership, such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be able to evaluate the merits and risks of an investment in the Partnership.

(k) Purchaser Representative. If the Investor has utilized a purchaser representative, the Investor has previously given the Partnership notice in writing of such fact, specifying that such representative would be acting as the Investor's "purchaser representative" as defined in Rule 501(i) of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(l) Plan Investors. The Investor is not a defined contribution plan (such as a 401(k) plan) or a partnership or other investment vehicle (i) in which its partners or participants have or shall have any discretion to determine whether or how much of the Investor's assets are invested in any investment made or to be made by the Investor or (ii) that is otherwise an entity managed to facilitate the individual decisions of its beneficial owners to invest in the Partnership.

(m) ERISA. If the Investor is (directly or indirectly) investing the assets of (1) an employee benefit plan or retirement plan, account or arrangement (a "Plan") that is subject to Part 4 of Title I of the U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") and/or Section 4975 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), (2) an entity whose underlying assets include plan assets by reason of a Plan's investment in such entity (including but not limited to an insurance company general account) within the meaning of the 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101, as modified by Section 3(42) of ERISA or otherwise, or (3) any plan that is subject to any provisions of any U.S. federal, state, local, non-U.S. or other laws or regulations that are similar to those provisions contained in such portions of ERISA or the Code (collectively, "Similar Laws") (such Investor, a "Benefit Plan Investor"): (i) the decision to purchase the Interest was made by a fiduciary (within the meaning of Section 3(21) of ERISA and the regulations thereunder, Section 4975 of the Code, or a similarly responsible party under applicable Similar Laws) (a "Plan Fiduciary") of the Benefit Plan Investor that is independent of and unrelated to the General Partner, the Investment Manager or any of their employees, representatives or Affiliates (the "Transaction Parties"), that is duly authorized to make such an investment decision on behalf of the Benefit Plan Investor and that has not relied on any advice or recommendation of the Transaction Parties; (ii) the Plan Fiduciary has been informed of and understands the Partnership's investment objectives, policies, limitations, fee structure and strategies and that the decision to invest the assets of the Benefit Plan Investor in the Partnership was made with appropriate consideration of relevant investment factors with regard to such Benefit Plan Investor and is in accordance with the Investor's fiduciary duties and responsibilities imposed upon fiduciaries with regard to their investment decisions under ERISA, the Code or Similar Laws; (iii) the Investor's decision to invest in the Partnership and the acquisition of the Interest contemplated thereby is in accordance with the terms of the Benefit Plan Investor's governing instruments and complies with all applicable requirements of ERISA, the Code and all applicable Similar Laws, if any; (iv) the purchase, holding and disposition of the Interest by the Investor shall not constitute or result in a prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA, or Section 4975 of the Code, or violation of any Similar Laws for which an exemption is not available; (v) in deciding to purchase and hold the Interests, the Investor has considered, to the extent required by law or the governing documents of the Benefit Plan Investor, the cash needs, investment policies, portfolio composition and appropriate liquidity and diversification of assets of the Benefit Plan Investor; (vi) the governing documents of the Benefit Plan Investor permits the payment of actual, direct and reasonable expenses of the Partnership and the Investment Manager, as described in the Memorandum; and (vii) none of the Transaction Parties have acted as a fiduciary of the Investor or any Benefit Plan Investor with respect to the Investor's decision to purchase or hold any Interests and none of the Transaction Parties shall at any time be relied upon as a fiduciary of the Investor or any Benefit Plan Investor with respect to any decision to purchase, continue to hold or redeem any Interests.

(n) Similar Laws. If the Investor is (directly or indirectly) investing the assets of a Benefit Plan Investor that is not subject to Part 4 of Title I of ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code but is subject to one or more Similar Laws, as described in clause (3) of the immediately preceding paragraph (m) that provide that the assets of the Partnership could be deemed to include "plan assets" under such Similar Law, the investment by the Investor shall not cause the Partnership's assets to constitute the assets of such Benefit Plan Investor under the provisions of any applicable Similar Law.

(o) Transfer Restrictions. Each Investor that is a Benefit Plan Investor agrees that it shall not sell or otherwise transfer the Interests to a transferee unless the transferee makes, or is deemed to make, the following representations and agreements:

(1) That it does have not discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the Partnership or any person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to the Partnership's assets, or any affiliate of such a person (a "Controlling Person") (except to the extent it certifies whether or not it is a Controlling Person of the Partnership).

(2) That it is not, and is not acting on behalf of, and for so long as it holds the Interests shall not be, and shall not be acting on behalf of, a Benefit Plan Investor and no part of the assets used by it to acquire or hold such Interests constitutes the assets of any Benefit Plan Investor.

(3) That the transferee shall not sell or otherwise transfer the Interests to a transferee unless the transferee makes, or is deemed to make, the foregoing representations and agreements.

(4) In the event that the General Partner determines that, at any time, 25% or more of the Interests are held by Benefit Plan Investors, the General Partner may cause a sale or transfer of the Interests in order to reduce the percentage of the Interests held by Benefit Plan Investors.

(p) No View to Tax Benefits. The Investor is not acquiring the Interest with a view to realizing any benefits under any tax law, including, but not limited to, United States federal income tax laws, and no representations have been made to the Investor that any such benefits shall be available as a result of the Investor's acquisition, ownership or disposition of the Interest.

(q) Publicly Traded Partnership. The following representations are included with the intention of enabling the Partnership to qualify for the benefit of a "safe harbor" under Treasury Regulations from treatment of the Partnership as an entity subject to corporate income tax. The Investor either:

(1) is not a partnership, grantor trust, or Subchapter S corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, or

(2) if it is an entity referred to in clause (1), then either: (x) it was not formed for the purpose of acquiring all or part of the Investor's Interest and not more than 50% of the value of the interest of each of its beneficial owners shall be attributable to the Investor's Interest so acquired, or (y) it has only the number of ultimate beneficial owners (looking through a pass-through entity described in clause (1) above to its beneficial owners, unless such an entity is able to give the certification in clause (1) or clause (2)(x)) identified to the General Partner.

If the Investor is unable to make either of the immediately foregoing representations, the Investor hereby agrees to provide the General Partner, prior to the effective date of the purchase of the Interest, with evidence (including opinions of counsel, if requested) satisfactory in form and substance to the General Partner relating to the status of the Partnership under Section 7704 of the Code.

(r) Status as Disregarded Entity. The Investor is not disregarded as an entity separate from its owner within the meaning of Section 301.7701-3 of the Treasury Regulations.

(s) No Borrowings. The Investor has not borrowed any portion of its contribution to the Partnership, either directly or indirectly, from the Partnership, the General Partner, or any Affiliate of the foregoing.

(t) Partnership Counsel Does Not Represent the Investors. The Investor understands and acknowledges that Day Pitney LLP ("Day Pitney") represents only the Investment Manager, the Partnership and the General Partner and certain of their respective Affiliates, and not the Investor, in connection with the formation of the Partnership and the sale of the Interest, and that the Investor should consult its own legal and tax advisors in connection therewith. The Partnership will not engage separate counsel for the Limited Partners in connection with the organization or operating of the Partnership. In that regard, prospective investors should consult with and rely on their own counsel concerning a potential investment in the Partnership, including tax consequences to them and any ERISA considerations relating to any investment in the Partnership. In connection with this offering and ongoing advice to the Partnership, the General Partner and the Investment Manager and their respective Affiliates, Day Pitney will not represent any Limited Partner unrelated to the General Partner. In connection with the preparation of this Agreement, Day Pitney's responsibility is limited to matters of United States law, and they do not accept responsibility in relation to any other matters referred to or disclosed in the Offering Materials. Day Pitney's representation of the Partnership is limited to specific matters as to which it has been consulted by the Partnership. There may exist other matters that could have a bearing on the Partnership as to which Day Pitney has not been consulted. In addition, Day Pitney does not undertake to monitor compliance by the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager and their Affiliates with the investment program, valuation procedures, or any other guidelines set forth herein, and Day Pitney does not monitor the Partnership's ongoing compliance with applicable laws.

(u) Privacy Notice. If the Investor is a natural person, he or she acknowledges receipt of the notice attached hereto as Exhibit G regarding privacy of financial information under the U.S. Federal Trade Commission privacy rule, 16 C.F.R. Part 313 (the "Privacy Rule"), and agrees that the Interest is a financial product that the Investor has requested and authorized. In accordance with Section 14 of the Privacy Rule, the Investor acknowledges and agrees that the Partnership may disclose nonpublic personal information of the Investor to the Partnership's accountants, attorneys and other service providers as necessary to effect, administer and enforce the Partnership and the Partners' rights and obligations or as otherwise may be required by applicable law, rule or regulation. If the Investor is an individual located in the European Union, the Investor understands that its personal data is required to be used for the legitimate business purposes of the Partnership and that failure to provide the required personal data or an objection to processing may result in the Partnership being unable to permit, process, or release the Investor's investment in the Partnership, resulting in a termination of the Investor's subscription.

(v) Nominees and Custodians. If the undersigned is acting as nominee or custodian for another person, entity or organization in connection with the Interest, the undersigned has so indicated on its signature page hereto. The representations and warranties contained in this Section 2 regarding the Investor are true and accurate with regard to each person, entity or other organization for which the undersigned is acting as nominee or custodian. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the representations and warranties regarding the status of the Investor in Exhibits A-I are true with respect to, and accurately describe, each person, entity or organization for which the undersigned is acting as nominee or custodian. Each person, entity or organization for which the undersigned is acting as nominee or custodian shall not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or distribute any part of its economic or beneficial interest in (or any other rights with respect to) the Interest without complying with all of the applicable provisions of the Partnership Agreement as if such person, entity or organization were a direct Limited Partner of the Partnership and were transferring a direct limited partnership interest in the Partnership. If the undersigned is acting as nominee or custodian for another person, entity or organization, the undersigned agrees to provide such other information as the General Partner may reasonably request regarding the undersigned and the person, entity or organization for which the undersigned is acting as nominee or custodian in order to determine the eligibility of the Investor to purchase the Interest.

(w) Subscription Facility. The Investor understands, acknowledges and agrees, in connection with any borrowings by the Partnership that are secured by a pledge, charge, mortgage, assignment, transfer or grant of a security interest in the Commitment and the right to call capital from the Partners (each such financing, a "Subscription Facility"), that: (i) if the General Partner or the lender under a Subscription Facility duly calls Capital Contributions from the Investor that the Investor is obligated to fund pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement (including, without limitation, those required as a result of the failure of any other Limited Partner to advance funds with respect to a call for a Capital Contribution), the Investor shall remain absolutely and unconditionally obligated to fund such Capital Contributions without setoff, counterclaim or defense, including without limitation any defense of fraud or mistake, or any defense under any bankruptcy or insolvency law, including Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, subject in all cases to its rights to assert such claims against the Partnership in one or more separate actions; provided, that any such claims shall be subordinate to all payments due to the lenders under a Subscription Facility; and (ii) any lender under a Subscription Facility shall extend credit to the Partnership in reliance on such Investor's funding of its Capital Contributions as such lender's primary source of repayment.

(x) Final Form. The Investor understands and acknowledges that his or its purchase of an Interest in the Partnership shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Partnership Agreement, in each case in the definitive form as shall be executed by the parties hereto and thereto, and as the same may be amended from time to time in accordance with their respective terms.

(y) No General Solicitation or General Advertisement. The Investor acknowledges that it is not purchasing an Interest as a result of or subsequent to (i) any advertisement, article, notice or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar media (including any internet site that is not password protected) or broadcast over television or radio, or (ii) any seminar or meeting whose attendees, including the Investor, had been invited as a result of, subsequent to or pursuant to the foregoing.

(z) OFAC and Anti-Money Laundering. The Investor hereby acknowledges that the Partnership seeks to comply with all applicable laws issued by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Asset Control ("OFAC"), and all other applicable laws concerning money laundering and related activities. In furtherance of those efforts, the Investor, on behalf of itself and any disclosed or undisclosed principal for which the Investor is acting as a nominee or other type of agent, certifies, based on appropriate diligence and investigation, that:

(1) it (and any such disclosed or undisclosed principal) is not named on any prohibited lists maintained by the U.S. government, including, but not limited to, the OFAC list of Specially Designated Nationals;

(2) it (and any such disclosed or undisclosed principal) is not otherwise subject to any OFAC sanctions program;

(3) none of the cash or property that the Investor has paid, shall pay or shall contribute to the Partnership has been or shall be derived from, or related to, any activity that is deemed criminal under United States law; and

(4) no contribution or payment by the Investor to the Partnership, to the extent that they are within the Investor's control, shall cause the Partnership or the General Partner to be in violation of the United States Bank Secrecy Act, the United States Money Laundering Control Act of 1986 or the United States International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act of 2001

(aa) Volcker Rule. The Investor hereby represents and warrants to the General Partner and the Partnership that the Investor is not a "banking entity" as such term is defined under Section 618 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the "Volcker Rule") or qualifies for an exclusion, an exemption and/or other relief under the Volcker Rule with respect to the ownership of Interests based on the currently available published regulatory guidance.

3. Closing and Capital Contributions. The closing of the sale and purchase of the Interest (the "Closing") shall take place on such date and time and at such place as shall be selected by the General Partner. The initial capital contribution for the purchase of the Investor's Interest as well as each additional capital contribution shall take place at such times and in the manner specified in the Partnership Agreement.

(a) Capital Calls. The Investor understands and agrees that capital calls shall be issued to the Investors in proportion to their Commitments, or on such other basis as determined by the General Partner in its sole discretion, and that each Capital Contribution shall be due upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice. The Investor understands that Investors who fail to comply with a drawdown notice may suffer significant penalties, including sanctions and forfeiture or compulsory transfer of their Interests in the Partnership. Accordingly, the Investor understands that the capital calls shall require the Investor to wire the full amount of its Capital Contribution, or otherwise satisfy the full amount of such Capital Contribution, as per the instructions set forth herein and in the applicable drawdown notice.

4. Agreements with Other Limited Partners. The purchases of the Interest by the Investor and interests in the Partnership by the other Limited Partners are to be separate purchases from the Partnership and the sales of the Interest to the Investor and interests in the Partnership to the other Limited Partners are to be separate sales by the Partnership. This Agreement and the subscription agreements to be executed by such other Limited Partners are sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Subscription Agreements."

5. Representations and Warranties. The Partnership and the General Partner hereby represent and warrant to the Investor that at the time of the Closing:

(a) Organization and Standing of the Partnership. The Partnership is duly organized and validly existing as a limited partnership under the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act and has all requisite power and authority under the Partnership Agreement and such law to enter into and carry out the terms of this Agreement, to conduct its activities as described in the Partnership Agreement, to issue and sell the Interest and to admit the Investor to the Partnership.

(b) Governmental and Regulatory Approval. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, nor the offer or sale of the Interest, requires any material consent, approval or authorization from, or filing, registration or qualification with, any federal, state or local governmental or regulatory authority (including, without limitation, registration under the Securities Act), on the part of the Partnership, except for (i) compliance by the Partnership and the General Partner with the requirements of any applicable United States state securities laws and (ii) filing by the Partnership of a Form D with the SEC pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(c) Litigation. There are no actions, proceedings or investigations pending or, to the Partnership's knowledge, threatened, which have a substantial likelihood of resulting in a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or operations of the Partnership or in any material liability on the part of the Partnership or the General Partner.

(d) Sale of the Interests. All action required to be taken by the General Partner and the Partnership as a condition to the sale of the Interest purchased by the Investor has been taken, such Interest shall represent a duly and validly created limited partnership interest in the Partnership and the Investor shall be a Limited Partner of the Partnership entitled to all the benefits, and subject to all the obligations, of a Limited Partner under the Partnership Agreement and Delaware law.

(e) Certificate of Limited Partnership. A Certificate of Limited Partnership has been filed with the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

(f) Due Execution and Delivery. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the General Partner on behalf of the Partnership and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by the Investor, is a valid and legally binding obligation of the Partnership, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms. (g) Investment Company Act Status. Based in part upon the representations of the Limited Partners contained in the Subscription Agreements, the Partnership is not required to be registered as an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act, after giving effect to the transactions contemplated in the Partnership Agreement.

6. Understandings. The Investor hereby understands, acknowledges and agrees with the Partnership and the General Partner as follows:

(a) The Investor agrees to provide promptly such information and execute and deliver such documents as may be necessary to comply with any and all laws and regulations to which the Partnership may be subject and ensure the accuracy of the Investor's representations and warranties herein, including, but not limited to, informing the General Partner of any change in status of the Investor which results in the Investor becoming or ceasing to be a Benefit Plan Investor.

(b) The Interests have not been approved or disapproved by the SEC or by any other federal, state or foreign securities commission or regulatory authority, and none of the foregoing authorities has confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of the Offering Materials or this Agreement. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

(c) The Interests are speculative investments and involve a high degree of risk. There is no public market for the Interests, and no such public or other market is expected to develop. The transferability of the Interests is substantially restricted both by the terms of the Partnership Agreement and applicable law. This Agreement is not transferable or assignable by the Investor without the prior written consent of the General Partner.

(d) The Investor understands and agrees that in order to ensure compliance under applicable anti-money laundering laws and regulations, the General Partner may require a detailed verification of the identity of a Person applying for an Interest. The General Partner reserves the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity of an Investor. In the event of delay or failure by the Investor to produce any information required for verification purposes, the General Partner may refuse to accept the Investor's subscription until proper information has been provided.

(e) The Investor covenants and agrees that it shall provide the General Partner, at any time during the term of the Partnership, with such information as the General Partner determines to be necessary or appropriate to (i) verify compliance with the anti-money laundering regulations of any applicable jurisdiction, (ii) respond to requests for information concerning the identity of the Investor, or any person holding a beneficial interest in the Investor and/or the Interest, from any governmental authority, self-regulatory organization or financial institution in connection with the Partnership's anti-money laundering compliance procedures or (iii) determine compliance with ERISA, the Department of Labor Regulation §2510.3-101, or any exception from coverage thereunder.

(f) The Investor understands and agrees that if any of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 2(z) or Exhibit H ceases to be true or if the Partnership no longer reasonably believes that it has satisfactory evidence as to their truth, notwithstanding any other agreement to the contrary, the Partnership shall have the right, and may be obligated, to freeze the Investor's investment, either by prohibiting additional investments and/or segregating the assets constituting the investment in accordance with applicable regulations, or the Investor's investment may immediately be involuntarily withdrawn by the Partnership, and the Partnership may also be required to report such action and to disclose the Investor's identity to OFAC or any other authority. If the Partnership is required to take any of the foregoing actions, the Investor understands and agrees that it shall have no claim against the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager or any of their respective Affiliates, members, partners, shareholders, officers, directors, employees or agents for any form of damages as a result of any of the aforementioned actions.

(g) The Investor certifies under penalties of perjury that (i) the Investor's name, taxpayer identification or social security number (if applicable) and address provided herein are correct and (ii)(A) if the Investor is a "U.S. Person" (as defined in the Code), the Investor is not a non-resident alien individual, foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust or foreign estate (as defined in the Code), (B) if the Investor is not a "U.S. Person" (as defined in the Code), the Investor is a non-resident alien individual, foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust or foreign estate (as defined in the Code) and (C) the Investor shall notify the Partnership within thirty (30) days of any change in such status. The Investor agrees to complete properly and provide to the Partnership or the General Partner in a timely manner any tax documentation that may be reasonably required by the General Partner in connection with the Investor's Interest in the Partnership.

(h) The Investor agrees that it shall furnish (including by way of updates) to the Partnership and the General Partner in such form and at such time as is reasonably requested by the Partnership or the General Partner (including by way of electronic certification) any information, representations and forms as shall reasonably be requested by the Partnership or the General Partner to assist it in obtaining any exemption, reduction or refund of any withholding or other taxes imposed by any tax authority or other governmental agency upon the Partnership, amounts paid to the Partnership, or amounts distributable by the Partnership to such Investor. In the event that any Investor fails to furnish such information, representations or forms to the Partnership or the General Partner, the Partnership shall have full authority to take any and all of the following actions: (i) withhold from distributions any taxes required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable legislation, regulations, rules or agreements, and (ii) compulsorily redeem the Investor's interest in the Partnership. If requested by the Partnership or the General Partner, the Investor shall execute any and all documents, opinions, instruments and certificates as the Partnership or the General Partner shall have reasonably requested or that are otherwise required to effectuate the foregoing. Each Investor hereby grants to the General Partner an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to execute any such documents, opinions, instruments or certificates on behalf of the Investor, if the Investor fails to do so.

(i) In connection with any borrowings by the Partnership, the Investor hereby agrees to deliver promptly to the General Partner such financial information as is reasonably requested by the General Partner or any lender or other credit party (a "Financier") providing such borrowing, including in the case of an Investor that is (directly or indirectly) investing the assets of a Benefit Plan Investor that is subject to Title I of ERISA, the Benefit Plan Investor's Form 5500, such evidence of authority for the execution, delivery and performance of its obligations under this Agreement or the Partnership Agreement as is reasonably requested by the General Partner or such Financier and such confirmations and acknowledgments as may be reasonably required by such Financier which shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the General Partner.

(j) If the Investor is (directly or indirectly) investing the assets of a Benefit Plan Investor that is subject to Title I of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code or any Similar Law, the Investor hereby acknowledges and agrees that, in the event the Partnership forms a corporation or other "feeder" entity through which the Investor participates in an investment in the Partnership or an alternative investment vehicle ("AIV") by making a capital contribution to the corporation or other "feeder" entity with respect to such entity's underlying interests in the Partnership or the AIV, as applicable, the Investor shall be deemed to (i) direct the managing entity of such entity to invest the amount of such capital contribution in the Partnership or AIV, as applicable, and (ii) acknowledge that, during any period when the underlying interests of the feeder entity are deemed to constitute "plan assets" under ERISA, the Code or any Similar Law, the managing entity of the feeder entity shall act as a custodian with respect to the assets of such Benefit Plan Investor but is not intended to be a fiduciary with respect to the assets of such Benefit Plan Investor for purposes of ERISA or any Similar Law. The managing entity of each feeder entity shall exercise the voting rights and all other rights of the feeder entity with respect to the Investor's proportionate interest in the underlying interests of the feeder entity in the Partnership or AIV, as applicable, only with the consent of and at the direction of the Investor (i.e., as if the Investor were a Limited Partner of the Partnership (or AIV)).

(k) The Investor acknowledges that the Partnership is entering into this Agreement in reliance on the representations, warranties, undertakings, and information provided herein, which the Investor acknowledges having given with the intention of inducing the General Partner and its Affiliates to approve and accept a subscription.

7. Power of Attorney.

(a) The Investor hereby constitutes and appoints the General Partner by one or more of its partners, members, managers, directors or officers in office and attorneys in fact of each from time to time, acting singly, to be the Limited Partner's agent and attorney-in-fact, in its name, place and stead, to make, execute, sign, acknowledge and deliver or file for and on behalf of the Investor, and in its name, place and stead (1) the Partnership Agreement of the Partnership, substantially in the form provided to the Investor, (2) any amendment to the Partnership Agreement duly adopted in accordance therewith, (3) any other certificate, consent, or other instrument which may be required by law to be filed by the Partnership or the partners thereof under the laws of any state or other jurisdiction, if the General Partner deems such filing necessary or desirable, and (4) all instruments, documents and certificates which may be required in connection with the admission of the Limited Partners to any alternative investment vehicles in accordance with the provisions of the Partnership Agreement, in each case said signature thereon on behalf of the Investor being conclusive evidence of the approval of the Investor of the terms thereof.

(b) The Investor hereby acknowledges that the terms of the Partnership Agreement permit certain amendments to the Partnership Agreement to be effected and certain other actions to be taken by or with respect to the Partnership, in each case with the approval or by the vote of less than all the Partners. If, as and when (1) an amendment of the Partnership Agreement is proposed or an action is proposed to be taken by or with respect to the Partnership which does not require, under the terms of the Partnership Agreement, the approval of all of the Partners, (2) Partners holding the Interest in the Partnership specified in the Partnership Agreement as being required for such amendment or action have approved such amendment or action in the manner contemplated by the Partnership Agreement (disregarding the consent of any Partner whose approval has been granted by the General Partner's use of such Partner's power of attorney), and (3) the Investor has failed or refused to approve such amendment or action, Investor agrees that the special attorney specified above, with full power of substitution, is hereby authorized and empowered to execute, acknowledge, make, swear to, verify, deliver, record, file and/or publish, for and on behalf of the Investor, and in its name, place and stead, any and all instruments and documents which may be necessary or appropriate to permit such amendment to be lawfully made or action lawfully taken.

(c) The foregoing grant of authority (1) is a special power of attorney deemed coupled with an interest in favor of the General Partner and as such shall be irrevocable and shall survive the death or disability of a Partner that is a natural person or the merger, dissolution or other termination of the existence of a Partner that is a corporation, association, partnership, limited liability company or trust, and (2) shall survive the assignment by the Partner of the whole or any portion of its Interest, except that where the assignee of the whole thereof has furnished a power of attorney, this power of attorney shall survive such assignment for the sole purpose of enabling the General Partner to execute, acknowledge and file any instrument necessary to effect any permitted substitution of the assignee for the assignor as a Partner and shall thereafter terminate. The Investor hereby acknowledges that it and each other Partner has executed this special power of attorney, and that each Partner shall rely on the effectiveness of such powers with a view to the orderly administration of the Partnership's affairs.

(d) The Investor hereby acknowledges, agrees and ratifies any prior execution of the Partnership Agreement by the General Partner (or other person) using the power of attorney granted above and agrees that such prior execution shall only take effect from the acceptance of the Investor's subscription by the General Partner and their admission as a Limited Partner.

8. Expenses. Each party hereto shall pay its own expenses relating to this Agreement and the purchase of the Investor's Interest in the Partnership hereunder. Investors who are admitted as Limited Partners that were solicited by a placement agent shall bear the full cost of any placement agent fee attributable to their investment in the manner set forth in the Partnership Agreement.

9. Amendments and Modification. Neither this Agreement nor any term hereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated except with the written consent of the Investor and the General Partner. No modification made to this Agreement shall be valid unless agreed to in advance by the General Partner and its legal counsel.

10. Rejection of Subscription. The Investor acknowledges that the subscription for the Interest contained herein may be reduced or rejected by the General Partner in its sole discretion at any time prior to the Closing.

11. Derivatives. If the Investor enters into a swap, structured note or other derivative instrument, the return from which is based in whole or in part on the return of the Partnership (the "Swap"), with a third party (a "Third Party"), the Investor represents and warrants that with respect to a Third Party entering into a Swap: (i) the Third Party is authorized under its constitutional documents (e.g., certificate of incorporation, by-laws, partnership agreement or trust agreement) and applicable law (including U.S. and non-U.S. anti-money laundering laws and regulations) to enter into the Swap and would also be so authorized to invest directly into the Partnership; (ii) the Third Party has received and reviewed a copy of the Offering Materials; and (iii) the Third Party acknowledges that the Partnership and its affiliates are not responsible for the legality, suitability or tax consequences of the Swap and that the Investor is not an agent of the Partnership; and (iv) the Third Party is: (x) an "eligible contract participant" as defined under the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended, and a "Qualified Eligible Person" under the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission rules; and (y) an "accredited investor" under Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a "qualified purchaser" under Section 2(a)(51) of the Investment Company Act, and (z) intentionally omitted.

12. FATCA. Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code of the Treasury Regulations thereunder ("FATCA") impose a number of obligations on the Partnership. In this regard:

(a) The Investor acknowledges that, in order to comply with the provisions of FATCA and avoid the imposition of U.S. federal withholding tax, the Partnership and the General Partner and their agents may, from time to time and to the extent provided under FATCA, (i) require further information and/or documentation from the Investor, which information and/or documentation may (A) include, but is not limited to, information and/or documentation relating to or concerning the Investor, the Investor's direct and indirect beneficial owners (if any), any such person's identity, residence (or jurisdiction of formation) and income tax status, and (B) need to be certified by the Investor under penalties of perjury, and (ii) provide or disclose any such information and documentation to the United States Internal Revenue Service or other governmental agencies of the United States.

(b) The Investor agrees that it shall provide such information and/or documentation concerning itself and its direct and indirect beneficial owners (if any), as and when requested by the Partnership or any of its agents, as the Partnership or any of its agents, in its sole discretion, determine is necessary or advisable for the Partnership to comply with its obligations under FATCA. The Investor also agrees to update the Partnership regarding any "change in circumstance" affecting its Chapter 4 status, as defined for purposes of FATCA, and to update such information and/or documentation to reflect any such status changes.

(c) The Investor agrees to waive any provision of law of any non-U.S. jurisdiction that would, absent a waiver, prevent the Investor's compliance with FATCA, including, but not limited to, the Investor's provision of any requested information and/or documentation.

(d) The Investor acknowledges that if the Investor does not timely provide the requested information and/or documentation or waiver, as applicable, the Partnership may, at its sole option and in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity, immediately or at such other time or times, organize an AIV at the expense of such Investor and transfer such Investor's commitments to such AIV, exclude such Investor from the Partnership, including requiring a transfer of the Investor's interests to another person or the redemption of the Investor's interests and/or deduct from the Investor's account and retain amounts sufficient to indemnify and hold harmless the Partnership and its agents, including, but not limited to, the General Partner or any other Investor, or any partner, member, shareholder, director, manager, officer, employee, delegate, agent, Affiliate, executor, heir, assign, successor or other legal representative of any of the foregoing persons, from any and all withholding taxes, interest, penalties and other losses or liabilities suffered by any such person on account of the Investor's failure to timely provide any requested information and/or documentation; provided that the foregoing indemnity shall be in addition to and supplement any other indemnity provided under this Agreement.

(e) The Investor acknowledges that the Partnership, in consultation with the General Partner, shall determine in its sole discretion, whether and how to comply with FATCA, and any such determinations shall include, but not be limited to, an assessment of the possible burden (including compliance costs and withholding taxes) to Investors and the General Partner of timely collecting information and/or documentation. The Investor acknowledges that it shall relieve the Partnership from liability in the event that such Investor suffers additional withholding or a reduction in value of its Interests as a result of another Investor's failure to cooperate with the Partnership on FATCA compliance.

(f) The Investor acknowledges and agrees that it shall have no claim against the Partnership and its agents, including, but not limited to, the General Partner or any other Investor, or any partner, member, shareholder, director, manager, officer, employee, delegate, agent, Affiliate, executor, heir, assign, successor or other legal representative of any of the foregoing persons, for any damages or liabilities attributable to any FATCA compliance related determinations pursuant to paragraph (e) above.

13. Agency Cross Transactions. The Investor understands and agrees that the General Partner or any of its affiliates (each, a "Integra Affiliate") may engage in "agency cross transactions" as defined in Rule 206(3)-2 ("Agency Cross Transactions") promulgated by the SEC under the Advisers Act, in which any Integra Affiliate acts as a broker for both the Investor or the Partnership and for another person on the other side of the transaction. The Investor understands and agrees that such Integra Affiliate may receive commissions from, and have a potentially conflicting division of loyalties and responsibilities regarding, both parties to such Agency Cross Transactions. THIS CONSENT, AS TO AGENCY CROSS TRANSACTIONS EFFECTED ON THE INVESTOR'S BEHALF, MAY BE REVOKED AT ANY TIME BY WRITTEN NOTICE FROM THE INVESTOR TO SUCH INTEGRA AFFILIATE. As to Agency Cross Transactions effected on behalf of the Partnership, such consent may be revoked at any time by written notice to the General Partner.

14. Additional Investor Information; Indemnity. The Investor understands that the information provided herein (including the exhibits hereto) shall be relied upon by the Partnership and the General Partner for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the Investor to purchase the Interest. The Investor agrees to provide, if requested, any additional information that may reasonably be required to determine the eligibility of the Investor to purchase or hold the Interest. The Investor represents and agrees that the information provided herein (including the exhibits hereto) regarding the Investor is true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and shall be true and correct as of the Closing and as of the date of the Investor's admission to the Partnership as a Limited Partner. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if there should be any change in the information provided herein or in any exhibit or schedule hereto regarding the Investor prior to the Closing or the Investor's admission to the Partnership, the Investor shall immediately furnish revised or corrected information to the General Partner in writing. The Investor shall furnish to the Partnership, upon request, any other information about the Investor reasonably determined by the General Partner to be necessary or convenient for the formation, operation, dissolution, winding-up or termination of the Partnership; provided that (A) such other information is in the Investor's possession or is available to the Investor without unreasonable effort or expense and (B) the Investor's obligations with respect to such other information shall not apply to information that the Investor is required by law or agreement to keep confidential. The Investor agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager, any Affiliate of the Partnership, the General Partner, or the Investment Manager, and any current or former director, officer, partner, member, manager, employee, or agent of any such party against any loss, damage, action or liability due to or arising out of a breach of any representation, warranty or agreement of the Investor contained in this Agreement (including the exhibits hereto) or in any other documents provided by the Investor to the Partnership or the General Partner in connection with the Investor's investment in the Interest. Any rights in this Agreement granted in favor of a Third Party are hereby held in trust by the Partnership for the benefit of such Third Party.

15. Withholding Forms. The Investor represents, warrants and agrees (for the benefit of the Partnership and of any person who participated in the offer or sale of the Interest) that it shall provide in a timely manner the information and forms requested by the General Partner, including a properly completed United States Internal Revenue Service Tax Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E, W-8IMY, W-8EXP or W-8ECI (each, a foreign person certificate) or W-9 (a US person certificate), as appropriate, and shall cooperate with the General Partner upon its request in order to maintain appropriate records and provide for withholding amounts under applicable United States tax laws, if any, relating to the Investor's Interest in the Partnership, and, further, in the event that the Investor fails to provide such information regarding United States tax withholding, the General Partner, the Partnership and their respective direct or indirect partners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, agents, service providers and their affiliates shall have no obligation or liability to the Investor with respect to any United States tax matters or obligations which may be assessed against the Investor or its beneficial owners. The Investor expressly acknowledges that such tax forms and withholding information may be provided to any withholding agent that has control, receipt or custody of the income of which the Investor is the beneficial owner or any withholding agent that can disburse or make payments of the income of which the Investor is the beneficial owner.

16. General. This Agreement (i) shall be binding upon the Investor and the legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns of the Investor, (ii) shall survive the admission of the Investor as a Limited Partner of the Partnership, (iii) shall not be assignable by the Investor without the prior written consent of the General Partner, and (iv) shall, if the Investor consists of more than one person, be the joint and several obligation of all such persons. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (without regard to its conflicts of laws). Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms or provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. This Agreement, the Partnership Agreement, any Side Letter, and other agreements or documents referred to herein or in the Partnership Agreement contain the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. There are no representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements except as stated or referred to herein and in such other agreements or documents. Each provision of this Agreement, each representation made herein and each provision of or grant of authority by or in Section 7, shall be considered severable. If it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that any provision of this Agreement or any representation made herein is invalid under applicable law, such provision or representation shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invaliding the remainder of this Agreement. Neither this Agreement nor any provisions hereof shall be waived, modified, discharged or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the General Partner. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by facsimile or electronic transmission) with the same effect as if the parties executing the counterparts had all executed one counterpart. Captions and headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning hereof.

17. Consent to Jurisdiction; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. To the fullest extent permitted by law, in the event of any dispute arising out of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the parties hereto consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the State of Florida, County of Miami-Dade. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACTION.

18. Matters Related to a Particular Series. The Investor shall invest in every Series but shall designate on the signature page to this Agreement whether it will invest in either of the following sub-Series for each Series: (a) a sub-Series which will elect to be taxed as a partnership for US tax purposes or (b) a sub-Series which will elect to be taxed as a corporation for U.S. tax purposes. Such designation or election shall be irrevocable once made by any Investor and such Investor shall be solely responsible for any U.S. tax liability in connection therewith. An investment in any Series does not provide the Investor with the right to invest in any other Series of Interests established by the General Partner. Investor holding a Series shall be entitled to the benefits of such Series only and shall not be entitled to share in the profits, losses, allocations or distributions of any other Series of which they are not participating.

19. Parallel Fund. The Investor acknowledges and agrees that for legal, tax, regulatory or similar reasons, the General Partner may form one or more parallel funds (each, a "Parallel Vehicle"). The Investor acknowledges and agrees that if the General Partner determines that for legal, tax, regulatory or similar reasons the Partnership should assign this Agreement to such Parallel Vehicle, if the General Partner accepts the Investor's subscription, the Investor shall become a partner in the Parallel Vehicle.

20. Funds-of-Funds. If the Investor is a private fund-of-funds (or other similar private collective investment vehicle), the Investor agrees that the Investor, its general partner and/or adviser or their equivalents) and their respective Affiliates may not reference the Partnership, the General Partner, the Investment Manager or any of their Affiliates in any offering document, marketing material or similar disclosure prepared by or at the direction of, or with the cooperation of, the Investor, its general partner and/or adviser (or their equivalents) or any of their respective Affiliates without the prior written consent of the General Partner, which may be given or withheld in the General Partner's sole discretion.

21. Third Party Beneficiaries. The Investment Manager and each officer, director, limited partner, member, manager, employee, Affiliate, agent or control person of the Partnership, the General Partner and the Investment Manager is and shall be deemed third party beneficiaries of Section 14 of this Agreement.

General Instructions

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN), which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid).
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds).
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds).
- Form 1099-NEC (nonemployee compensation).
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers).
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions).
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third-party network transactions).
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), and 1098-T (tuition).
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt).
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property).

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

Caution: If you don't return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued);

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding; or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee; and

4. Certify to your non-foreign status for purposes of withholding under chapter 3 or 4 of the Code (if applicable); and

5. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting is correct. See What Is FATCA Reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding. Payments made to foreign persons, including certain distributions, allocations of income, or transfers of sales proceeds, may be subject to withholding under chapter 3 or chapter 4 of the Code (sections 1441–1474). Under those rules, if a Form W-9 or other certification of non-foreign status has not been received, a withholding agent, transferee, or partnership (payor) generally applies presumption rules that may require the payor to withhold applicable tax from the recipient, owner, transferor, or partner (payee). See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.

The following persons must provide Form W-9 to the payor for purposes of establishing its non-foreign status.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the disregarded entity.
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the grantor trust.
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

See Pub. 515 for more information on providing a Form W-9 or a certification of non-foreign status to avoid withholding.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person (under Regulations section 1.1441-1(b)(2)(iv) or other applicable section for chapter 3 or 4 purposes), do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515). If you are a qualified foreign pension fund under Regulations section 1.897(l)-1(d), or a partnership that is wholly owned by qualified foreign pension funds, that is treated as a non-foreign person for purposes of section 1445 withholding, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use Form W-8EXP (or other certification of non-foreign status).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a saving clause. Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if their stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first Protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on their scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include, but are not limited to, interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third-party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester;

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details);

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN;

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only); or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding, as described in item 4 under "By signing the filled-out form" above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

See also Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding, earlier.

What Is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all U.S. account holders that are specified U.S. persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you are no longer tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

• Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note for ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040 you filed with your application.

• Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your Form 1040 on line 1. Enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

• Partnership, C corporation, S corporation, or LLC, other than a disregarded entity. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

• Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. Enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

• Disregarded entity. In general, a business entity that has a single owner, including an LLC, and is not a corporation, is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (a disregarded entity). See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2). A disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the owner entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, enter it on line 2.

Line 3a

Check the appropriate box on line 3a for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3a.

IF the entity/individual on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .

• Individual or • Sole proprietorship	Individual/sole proprietor.
• LLC classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes or • LLC that has filed Form 8832 or 2553 electing to be taxed as a corporation	Limited liability company and enter the appropriate tax classification: P = Partnership, C = C corporation, or S = S corporation.
• Partnership	Partnership.
• Trust/estate	Trust/estate.

Line 3b

Check this box if you are a partnership (including an LLC classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes), trust, or estate that has any foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, and you are providing this form to a partnership, trust, or estate, in which you have an ownership interest. You must check the box on line 3b if you receive a Form W-8 (or documentary evidence) from any partner, owner, or beneficiary establishing foreign status or if you receive a Form W-9 from any partner, owner, or beneficiary that has checked the box on line 3b.

Note: A partnership that provides a Form W-9 and checks box 3b may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065). For more information, see the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

If you are required to complete line 3b but fail to do so, you may not receive the information necessary to file a correct information return with the IRS or furnish a correct payee statement to your partners or beneficiaries. See, for example, sections 6698, 6722, and 6724 for penalties that may apply.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, enter "NEW" at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have, and are not eligible to get, an SSN, your TIN is your IRS ITIN. Enter it in the entry space for the Social security number. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/EIN. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4 mailed to you within 15 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and enter "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, you will generally have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon. See also Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding, earlier, for when you may instead be subject to withholding under chapter 3 or 4 of the Code.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third-party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information, such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax return preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity, or a questionable credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Go to www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their laws. The information may also be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payors must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividends, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payor. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-8BEN and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to IRS.gov/FormW8BEN.

What's New

Guidance under section 1446(f). The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA), added section 1446(f), which generally requires that if any portion of the gain on any disposition of an interest in a partnership would be treated under section 864(c)(8) as effectively connected gain, the transferee purchasing an interest in such a partnership from a non-U.S. transferor must withhold a tax equal to 10% of the amount realized on the disposition unless an exception to withholding applies. T.D. 9926, published on November 30, 2020 (84 FR 76910), contains final regulations (the section 1446(f) regulations) relating to the withholding and reporting required under section 1446(f), which includes withholding requirements that apply to brokers effecting transfers of interests in publicly traded partnerships (PTPs). The section 1446(f) regulations also revise certain requirements under section 1446(a) relating to withholding and reporting on distributions made by PTPs. Withholding on transfers of interests in PTPs and the revisions included in the section 1446(f) regulations relating to withholding on PTP distributions under section 1446(a) apply to transfers and distributions that occur on or after January 1, 2023. See Notice 2021-51, 2021-36 I.R.B. 361, for more information. The provisions of the section 1446(f) regulations relating to withholding and reporting on transfers of interests in partnerships that are not PTPs generally apply to transfers occurring after January 29, 2021. These instructions have been updated to incorporate the use of this form by an individual who is a transferor of an interest in a partnership subject to withholding on the amount realized from the transfer. See Pub. 515 for an additional discussion of section 1446(f) withholding, including the effective dates of each provision.

New lines 6a and 6b. New line 6b, “FTIN not legally required,” has been added for account holders otherwise required to provide an FTIN on line 6 (redesignated as line 6a) to indicate that they are not legally required to obtain an FTIN from their jurisdiction of residence. See the instructions for Line 6a and Line 6b.

Line 10, claims of tax treaty benefits. The instructions for this line have been updated to include representations required by individuals claiming treaty benefits on business profits or gains not attributable to a permanent establishment, including for a foreign partner that derives gain subject to tax under section 864(c)(8) upon the transfer of an interest in a partnership and who would be subject to withholding under section 1446(f). The instructions for this line have also been updated to include representations required by individuals claiming treaty benefits under an income tax treaty that provides for treaty benefits related to a remittance-based tax system.

Section 6050Y reporting. These instructions have been updated to reference the use of this form by a foreign individual who is the seller of a life insurance contract or interest therein or who is a recipient of a reportable death benefit for purposes of reporting under section 6050Y.

Electronic signature. These instructions have been updated to include additional guidance included in final regulations issued under chapter 3 (T.D. 9890) concerning the use of electronic signatures on withholding certificates. See Certification in Part III, later, and Regulations section 1.1441-1(e)(4)(i)(B).

General Instructions

For definitions of terms used throughout these instructions, see Definitions, later.

Purpose of Form

Establishing status for chapter 3 purposes. Foreign persons are subject to U.S. tax at a 30% rate on income they receive from U.S. sources that consists of:

- Interest (including certain original issue discount (OID));
- Dividends;
- Rents;
- Royalties;
- Premiums;
- Annuities;
- Compensation for, or in expectation of, services performed;
- Substitute payments in a securities lending transaction; or
- Other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, or income.

This tax is imposed on the gross amount paid and is generally collected by withholding under section 1441. A payment is considered to have been made whether it is made directly to the beneficial owner or to another person, such as an intermediary, agent, or partnership, for the benefit of the beneficial owner.

In addition, section 1446(a) requires a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States to withhold tax on a foreign partner's distributive share of the partnership's effectively connected taxable income. Also, section 1446(f) generally requires a transferee of a partnership interest (or a broker in the case of a transfer of a PTP interest) to withhold on the amount realized from the transfer by a foreign person when any portion of the gain from the transfer would be treated as effectively connected gain under section 864(c)(8). Generally, a foreign person that is a partner in a partnership that submits a Form W-8BEN for purposes of section 1441 or 1442 will satisfy the documentation requirements under section 1446(a) or (f) as well. However, in some cases the documentation requirements of sections 1441 and 1442 do not match the documentation requirements of section 1446(a) or (f). See Regulations sections 1.1446-1 through 1.1446-6 (for documentation requirements under section 1446(a)) and Regulations sections 1.1446(f)-2 and 1.1446(f)-4 (for documentation requirements under section 1446(f)).

Note. The owner of a disregarded entity (including an individual), rather than the disregarded entity itself, must submit the appropriate Form W-8BEN for purposes of section 1446(a) or (f), or for chapter 3 or 4 purposes.

If you receive certain types of income, you must provide Form W-8BEN to:

- Establish that you are not a U.S. person;
- Claim that you are the beneficial owner of the income for which Form W-8BEN is being provided or a foreign partner in a partnership subject to section 1446(a); and
- If applicable, claim a reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding as a resident of a foreign country with which the United States has an income tax treaty and who is eligible for treaty benefits.

You may also be required to submit Form W-8BEN to claim an exception from domestic information reporting and backup withholding (at the backup withholding rate under section 3406) for certain types of income that are not subject to foreign-person withholding at a rate of 30% under section 1441. Such income includes:

- Broker proceeds;
- Short-term (183 days or less) OID;
- Bank deposit interest;
- Foreign source interest, dividends, rents, or royalties;
- Proceeds from a wager placed by a nonresident alien individual in the games of blackjack, baccarat, craps, roulette, or big-6 wheel; and
- Amounts of United States source gross transportation income, as defined in section 887(b)(1), that are taxable under section 887(a).

A withholding agent or payer of the income may rely on a properly completed Form W-8BEN to treat a payment associated with the Form W-8BEN as a payment to a foreign person who beneficially owns the amounts paid. If applicable, the withholding agent may rely on the Form W-8BEN to apply a reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding at source.

Provide Form W-8BEN to the withholding agent or payer before income is paid or credited to you. Failure to provide a Form W-8BEN when requested may lead to withholding at the foreign-person withholding rate of 30% or the backup withholding rate under section 3406.

Establishing status for chapter 4 purposes. A foreign financial institution (FFI) may rely on a properly completed Form W-8BEN to establish your chapter 4 status as a foreign person. The Form W-8BEN should be provided to the FFI when requested. Failure to do so could result in 30% withholding on income paid or credited to you as a recalcitrant account holder from sources within the United States. See the definition of Amounts subject to withholding, later.

Additional information. For additional information and instructions for the withholding agent, see the Instructions for the Requester of Forms W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E, W-8ECI, W-8EXP, and W-8IMY.

Who Must Provide Form W-8BEN

You must give Form W-8BEN to the withholding agent or payer if you are a nonresident alien who is the beneficial owner of an amount subject to withholding, or if you are an account holder of an FFI documenting yourself as a nonresident alien. If you are the single owner of a disregarded entity, you are considered the beneficial owner of income received by the disregarded entity. Submit Form W-8BEN when requested by the withholding agent, payer, or FFI whether or not you are claiming a reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding.

You should provide Form W-8BEN to a payment settlement entity (PSE) requesting this form if you are a foreign individual receiving payments subject to reporting under section 6050W (payment card transactions and third-party network transactions) as a participating payee. However, if the payments are income which is effectively connected to the conduct of a U.S. trade or business, you should instead provide the PSE with a Form W-8ECI.

You must provide Form W-8BEN to the 6050Y(b) issuer (as defined under Regulations section 1.6050Y-1(a)(8)(iii)), to establish your foreign status if you are an individual who is the seller of a life insurance contract (or an interest therein) under section 6050Y (excluding a payment of effectively connected income). See Regulations section 1.6050Y-3.

You must provide Form W-8BEN to the payor (as defined in Regulations section 1.6050Y-1(a)(11)), to establish your foreign status if you are an individual receiving a payment of reportable death benefits for purposes of section 6050Y or chapter 3. See Regulations section 1.6050Y-4.

Do not use Form W-8BEN if you are described below.

- You are a foreign entity documenting your foreign status, documenting your chapter 4 status, or claiming treaty benefits. Instead, use Form W-8BEN-E.
- You are a U.S. citizen (even if you reside outside the United States) or other U.S. person (including a resident alien individual). Instead, use Form W-9 to document your status as a U.S. person.
- You are acting as a foreign intermediary (that is, acting not for your own account, but for the account of others as an agent, nominee, or custodian). Instead, provide Form W-8IMY.

- You are a nonresident alien individual who claims exemption from withholding on compensation for independent or dependent personal services performed in the United States. Instead, provide Form 8233 or Form W-4.
- You are receiving income that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, unless it is allocable to you through a partnership. Instead, provide Form W-8ECI. If any of the income for which you have provided a Form W-8BEN becomes effectively connected, this is a change in circumstances and Form W-8BEN is no longer valid with respect to such income. You must file Form W-8ECI. See Change in circumstances, later.
- You are the trustee of a foreign trust. Instead provide Form W-8BEN-E or Form W-8IMY for the trust.

Giving Form W-8BEN to the withholding agent. Do not send Form W-8BEN to the IRS. Instead, give it to the person who is requesting it from you. Generally, this will be the person from whom you receive the payment, who credits your account, or a partnership that allocates income to you. An FFI may also request this form from you to document your account as other than a U.S. account. Give Form W-8BEN to the person requesting it before the payment is made to you, credited to your account, or allocated. If you do not provide this form, the withholding agent may have to withhold at the 30% rate (under chapters 3 and 4), backup withholding rate, or the rate applicable under section 1446. If you receive more than one type of income from a single withholding agent for which you claim different benefits, the withholding agent may, at its option, require you to submit a Form W-8BEN for each different type of income. Generally, a separate Form W-8BEN must be given to each withholding agent.

Note. If you own the income or account jointly with one or more other persons, the income or account will be treated by the withholding agent as owned by a foreign person that is a beneficial owner of a payment only if Forms W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E are provided by all of the owners. If the withholding agent or financial institution receives a Form W-9 from any of the joint owners, however, the payment must be treated as made to a U.S. person and the account treated as a U.S. account.

Expiration of Form W-8BEN. Generally, a Form W-8BEN will remain in effect for purposes of establishing foreign status for a period starting on the date the form is signed and ending on the last day of the third succeeding calendar year, unless a change in circumstances makes any information on the form incorrect. For example, a Form W-8BEN signed on September 30, 2015, remains valid through December 31, 2018.

However, under certain conditions a Form W-8BEN will remain in effect indefinitely until a change of circumstances occurs. To determine the period of validity for Form W-8BEN for purposes of chapter 4, see Regulations section 1.1471-3(c)(6)(ii). To determine the period of validity for Form W-8BEN for purposes of chapter 3, see Regulations section 1.1441-1(e)(4)(ii).

Change in circumstances. If a change in circumstances makes any information on the Form W-8BEN you have submitted incorrect, you must notify the withholding agent, payer, or FFI with which you hold an account within 30 days of the change in circumstances and you must file a new Form W-8BEN or other appropriate form.

If you use Form W-8BEN to certify that you are a foreign person, a change of address to an address in the United States is a change in circumstances. Generally, a change of address within the same foreign country or to another foreign country is not a change in circumstances. However, if you use Form W-8BEN to claim treaty benefits, a move to the United States or outside the country where you have been claiming treaty benefits is a change in circumstances. In that case, you must notify the withholding agent, payer, or FFI within 30 days of the move.

If you become a U.S. citizen or resident alien after you submit Form W-8BEN, you are no longer subject to the 30% withholding rate under section 1441 or the withholding tax on a foreign partner's share of effectively connected income under section 1446. To the extent you have an account with an FFI, your account may be subject to reporting by the FFI under chapter 4. You must notify the withholding agent, payer, or FFI within 30 days of becoming a U.S. citizen or resident alien. You may be required to provide a Form W-9. For more information, see Form W-9 and its instructions.

CAUTION You may be a U.S. resident for tax purposes depending on the number of days you are physically present in the United States over a 3-year period. See Pub. 519, available at IRS.gov/Pub519. If you satisfy the substantial presence test, you must notify the withholding agent, payer, or financial institution with which you have an account within 30 days and provide a Form W-9.

Definitions

Account holder. An account holder is generally the person listed or identified as the holder or owner of a financial account. For example, if a partnership is listed as the holder or owner of a financial account, then the partnership is the account holder, rather than the partners of the partnership (subject to some exceptions). However, an account that is held by a single-member disregarded entity is treated as held by the entity's single owner.

Amount realized. For purposes of section 1446(f), an amount realized on the transfer of an interest in a partnership other than a PTP is as determined under section 1001 (including Regulations sections 1.1001-1 through 1.1001-5) and section 752 (including Regulations sections 1.752-1 through 1.752-7). See Regulations section 1.1446(f)-2(c)(2). An amount realized on the transfer of a PTP interest is the amount of gross proceeds (as defined in Regulations section 1.6045-1(d)(5)) paid or credited to a partner or broker (as applicable) that is a transferor of the interest. The amount realized on a PTP distribution is the amount of the distribution reduced by the portion of the distribution that is attributable to the cumulative net income of the partnership (as determined under Regulations section 1.1446(f)-4(c)(2)(iii)).

Amounts subject to withholding. Generally, an amount subject to chapter 3 withholding is an amount from sources within the United States that is fixed or determinable annual or periodical (FDAP) income (including such an amount on a PTP distribution except as indicated otherwise). FDAP income is all income included in gross income, including interest (as well as OID), dividends, rents, royalties, and compensation. FDAP income does not include most gains from the sale of property (including market discount and option premiums), as well as other specific items of income described in Regulations section 1.1441-2 (such as interest on bank deposits and short-term OID).

Generally, an amount subject to chapter 4 withholding is an amount of U.S. source FDAP income that is also a withholdable payment as defined in Regulations section 1.1473-1(a). The exemptions from withholding provided for under chapter 3 are not applicable when determining whether withholding applies under chapter 4. For specific exceptions applicable to the definition of a withholdable payment, see Regulations section 1.1473-1(a)(4) (exempting, for example, certain nonfinancial payments).

For purposes of section 1446(a), the amount subject to withholding is the foreign partner's share of the partnership's effectively connected taxable income. For purposes of section 1446(f), the amount subject to withholding is the amount realized on the transfer of a partnership interest.

Beneficial owner. For payments other than those for which a reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding is claimed under an income tax treaty, the beneficial owner of income is generally the person who is required under U.S. tax principles to include the payment in gross income on a tax return. A person is not a beneficial owner of income, however, to the extent that person is receiving the income as a nominee, agent, or custodian, or to the extent the person is a conduit whose participation in a transaction is disregarded. In the case of amounts paid that do not constitute income, beneficial ownership is determined as if the payment were income.

Foreign partnerships, foreign simple trusts, and foreign grantor trusts are not the beneficial owners of income paid to the partnership or trust. The beneficial owners of income paid to a foreign partnership are generally the partners in the partnership, provided that the partner is not itself a partnership, foreign simple or grantor trust, nominee, or other agent. The beneficial owners of income paid to a foreign simple trust (that is, a foreign trust that is described in section 651(a)) are generally the beneficiaries of the trust, if the beneficiary is not a foreign partnership, foreign simple or grantor trust, nominee, or other agent. The beneficial owners of a foreign grantor trust (that is, a foreign trust to the extent that all or a portion of the income of the trust is treated as owned by the grantor or another person under sections 671 through 679) are the persons treated as the owners of the trust. The beneficial owners of income paid to a foreign complex trust (that is, a foreign trust that is not a foreign simple trust or foreign grantor trust) is the trust itself.

Generally, for purposes of sections 1446(a) and (f), the same beneficial owner rules apply, except that under section 1446(a) and (f) a foreign simple trust is required to provide a Form W-8 on its own behalf rather than on behalf of the beneficiary of such trust.

A payment to a U.S. partnership, U.S. trust, or U.S. estate is treated as a payment to a U.S. payee. A U.S. partnership, trust, or estate should provide the withholding agent with a Form W-9 pertaining to itself. However, for purposes of section 1446(a), a U.S. grantor trust or disregarded entity shall not provide the withholding agent a Form W-9. Instead, the entity must provide a Form W-8 or Form W-9 pertaining to each grantor or owner, as appropriate, and, in the case of a trust, a statement identifying the portion of the trust treated as owned by each such person. For purposes of section 1446(f), the grantor or owner must provide a Form W-8 or Form W-9 to certify its status and the amount realized allocable to the grantor or owner, which, alternatively, can be provided by the U.S. grantor trust on behalf of a grantor or owner.

Chapter 3. Chapter 3 means chapter 3 of the Internal Revenue Code (Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Corporations). Chapter 3 contains sections 1441 through 1464, excluding sections 1445 and 1446.

Chapter 4. Chapter 4 means chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code (Taxes to Enforce Reporting on Certain Foreign Accounts). Chapter 4 contains sections 1471 through 1474.

Deemed-compliant FFI. Under section 1471(b)(2), certain FFIs are deemed to comply with the regulations under chapter 4 without the need to enter into an FFI agreement with the IRS. However, certain deemed-compliant FFIs are required to register with the IRS and obtain a Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN). These FFIs are referred to as registered deemed-compliant FFIs. See Regulations section 1.1471-5(f).

Disregarded entity. A business entity that has a single owner and is not a corporation under Regulations section 301.7701-2(b) is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner. A disregarded entity does not submit this Form W-8BEN to a partnership for purposes of section 1446 or to an FFI for purposes of chapter 4. Instead, the owner of such entity provides appropriate documentation. See Regulations section 1.1446-1 and section 1.1471-3(a)(3)(v), respectively.

Certain entities that are disregarded for U.S. tax purposes may be recognized for purposes of claiming treaty benefits under an applicable tax treaty (see the definition of Hybrid entity,later). A hybrid entity claiming treaty benefits is required to complete Form W-8BEN-E. See Form W-8BEN-E and its instructions.

Financial account. A financial account includes:
- A depository account maintained by a financial institution;
- A custodial account maintained by a financial institution;
- Equity or debt interests (other than interests regularly traded on an established securities market) in investment entities and certain holding companies, treasury centers, or financial institutions as defined in Regulations section 1.1471-5(e);
- Cash value insurance contracts; and
- Annuity contracts.

For purposes of chapter 4, exceptions are provided for accounts such as certain tax-favored savings accounts; term life insurance contracts; accounts held by estates; escrow accounts; and annuity contracts. These exceptions are subject to certain conditions. See Regulations section 1.1471-5(b)(2). Accounts may also be excluded from the definition of financial account under an applicable IGA.

Financial institution. A financial institution generally means an entity that is a depository institution, custodial institution, investment entity, or an insurance company (or holding company of an insurance company) that issues cash value insurance or annuity contracts.

Foreign financial institution (FFI). An FFI generally means a foreign entity that is a financial institution.

Foreign person. A foreign person includes a nonresident alien individual and certain foreign entities that are not U.S. persons (entities that are beneficial owners should complete Form W-8BEN-E rather than this Form W-8BEN).

Hybrid entity. A hybrid entity is any person (other than an individual) that is treated as fiscally transparent for purposes of its status under the Code but is not treated as fiscally transparent by a country with which the United States has an income tax treaty. Hybrid status is relevant for claiming treaty benefits.

Intergovernmental agreement (IGA). An IGA means a Model 1 IGA or a Model 2 IGA. For a list of jurisdictions treated as having in effect a Model 1 or Model 2 IGA, see the list of jurisdictions at www.treasury.gov/resource-center/tax-policy/treaties/Pages/FATCA-Archive.aspx.

A Model 1 IGA means an agreement between the United States or the Treasury Department and a foreign government or one or more agencies to implement FATCA through reporting by FFIs to such foreign government or agency, followed by automatic exchange of the reported information with the IRS. An FFI in a Model 1 IGA jurisdiction that performs account reporting to the jurisdiction's government is referred to as a reporting Model 1 FFI.

A Model 2 IGA means an agreement or arrangement between the United States or the Treasury Department and a foreign government or one or more agencies to implement FATCA through reporting by FFIs directly to the IRS in accordance with the requirements of an FFI agreement, supplemented by the exchange of information between such foreign government or agency and the IRS. An FFI in a Model 2 IGA jurisdiction that has entered into an FFI agreement with respect to a branch is a participating FFI, but may be referred to as a reporting Model 2 FFI.

Nonresident alien individual. Any individual who is not a citizen or resident alien of the United States is a nonresident alien individual. An alien individual meeting either the "green card test" or the "substantial presence test" for the calendar year is a resident alien. Any person not meeting either test is a nonresident alien individual. Additionally, an alien individual who is treated as a nonresident alien pursuant to Regulations section 301.7701(b)-7 for purposes figuring the individual's U.S. tax liability, or an alien individual who is a bona fide resident of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or American Samoa is a nonresident alien individual. See Pub. 519 for more information on resident and nonresident alien status.

Even though a nonresident alien individual married to a U.S. citizen or resident alien may choose to be treated as a resident alien for certain purposes (for example, filing a joint income tax return), such individual is still treated as a nonresident alien for chapter 3 withholding tax purposes on all income except wages. For purposes of chapter 4, a nonresident alien individual who holds a joint account with a U.S. person will be considered a holder of a U.S. account for chapter 4 purposes.

Participating FFI. A participating FFI is an FFI that has agreed to comply with the terms of an FFI agreement with respect to all branches of the FFI, other than a branch that is a reporting Model 1 FFI or a U.S. branch. The term "participating FFI" also includes a reporting Model 2 FFI and a qualified intermediary (QI) branch of a U.S. financial institution, unless such branch is a reporting Model 1 FFI.

Participating payee. A participating payee means any person that accepts a payment card as payment or accepts payment from a third-party settlement organization in settlement of a third-party network transaction.

Payment settlement entity (PSE). A PSE is a merchant acquiring entity or third-party settlement organization. Under section 6050W, a PSE is generally required to report payments made in settlement of payment card transactions or third-party network transactions. However, a PSE is not required to report payments made to a beneficial owner that is documented as foreign with an applicable Form W-8.

PTP interest. A PTP interest is an interest in a PTP if the interest is publicly traded on an established securities market or is readily tradable on a secondary market (or the substantial equivalent thereof).

Publicly traded partnership (PTP). A publicly traded partnership is an entity that has the same meaning as in section 7704 and Regulations section 1.7704-4 but does not include a publicly traded partnership treated as a corporation under that section.

Recalcitrant account holder. A recalcitrant account holder includes an individual who fails to comply with the requests of an FFI for documentation and information for determining the U.S. or foreign status of the individual's account, including furnishing this Form W-8BEN when requested.

Transfer. A transfer is a sale, exchange, or other disposition, and includes a distribution from a partnership to a partner, as well as a transfer treated as a sale or exchange under section 707(a)(2)(B).

Transferee. A transferee is any person, foreign or domestic, that acquires a partnership interest through a transfer and includes a partnership that makes a distribution.

Transferor. A transferor is any person, foreign or domestic, that transfers a partnership interest. In the case of a trust, to the extent all or a portion of the income of the trust is treated as owned by the grantor or another person under sections 671 through 679 (such trust, a grantor trust), the term transferor means the grantor or other person.

U.S. person. A U.S. person is defined in section 7701(a)(30) and includes an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States. For purposes of chapter 4, a U.S. person is defined in Regulations section 1.1471-1(b)(141).

Withholding agent. Any person, U.S. or foreign, that has control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of U.S. source FDAP income subject to chapter 3 or 4 withholding is a withholding agent. The withholding agent may be an individual, corporation, partnership, trust, association, or any other entity, including (but not limited to) any foreign intermediary, foreign partnership, and U.S. branches of certain foreign banks and insurance companies.

For purposes of section 1446(a), the withholding agent is the partnership conducting the trade or business in the United States. For a partnership distribution made by a PTP, the withholding agent for purposes of section 1446(a) may be the PTP, a nominee holding an interest on behalf of a foreign person, or both. See Regulations sections 1.1446-1 through 1.1446-6.

Specific Instructions

Part I

Line 1. Enter your name. If you are a foreign individual who is the single owner of a disregarded entity that is not claiming treaty benefits as a hybrid entity, with respect to a payment, you should complete this form with your name and information. If the account to which a payment is made or credited is in the name of the disregarded entity, you should inform the withholding agent of this fact. This may be done by including the name and account number of the disregarded entity on line 7 (reference number) of the form. However, if the disregarded entity is claiming treaty benefits as a hybrid entity, it should complete Form W-8BEN-E instead of this Form W-8BEN.

Line 2. Enter your country of citizenship. If you are a dual citizen, enter the country where you are both a citizen and a resident at the time you complete this form. If you are not a resident in any country in which you have citizenship, enter the country where you were most recently a resident. However, if you are a U. S. citizen, you should not complete this form even if you hold citizenship in another jurisdiction. Instead, provide Form W-9.

Line 3. Your permanent residence address is the address in the country where you claim to be a resident for purposes of that country's income tax. If you are completing Form W-8BEN to claim a reduced rate of withholding under an income tax treaty, you must determine your residency in the manner required by the treaty. Do not show the address of a financial institution, a post office box, or an address used solely for mailing purposes. If you do not have a tax residence in any country, your permanent residence is where you normally reside.

If you reside in a country that does not use street addresses, you may enter a descriptive address on line 3. The address must accurately indicate your permanent residence in the manner used in your jurisdiction.

Line 4. Enter your mailing address only if it is different from the address you show on line 3.

Line 5. If you have a social security number (SSN), enter it here. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5 from a Social Security Administration (SSA) office or online at www.ssa.gov/forms/ss-5.pdf. If you are in the United States, you can call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. Complete Form SS-5 and return it to the SSA.

If you do not have an SSN and are not eligible to get one, you can get an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). To apply for an ITIN, file Form W-7 with the IRS. It usually takes 4–6 weeks to get an ITIN. To claim certain treaty benefits, you must complete line 5 by submitting an SSN or ITIN, or line 6 by providing a foreign tax identification number (foreign TIN).

CAUTION An ITIN is for tax use only. It does not entitle you to social security benefits or change your employment or immigration status under U.S. law.

A partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States will likely be allocated effectively connected taxable income. In addition, if the partner transfers an interest in such a partnership, the partner may be subject to tax under section 864(c)(8) on the transfer. As in either case the partner is considered engaged in a U.S. trade or business because it is a partner in a partnership engaged in a U.S. trade or business, the partner is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and must have a U.S. taxpayer identification number (ITIN), which the partner is required to provide on this form.

You must also provide an SSN or TIN if you are:

- Claiming an exemption from withholding under section 871(f) for certain annuities received under qualified plans, or
- Submitting the form to a partnership that conducts a trade or business in the United States.

If you are claiming treaty benefits, you are generally required to provide an ITIN if you do not provide a tax identifying number issued to you by your jurisdiction of tax residence on line 6. However, an ITIN is not required to claim treaty benefits relating to:

- Dividends and interest from stocks and debt obligations that are actively traded;
- Dividends from any redeemable security issued by an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (mutual fund);
- Dividends, interest, or royalties from units of beneficial interest in a unit investment trust that are (or were upon issuance) publicly offered and are registered with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933; and
- Income related to loans of any of the above securities.

Line 6a. If you are providing this Form W-8BEN to document yourself as an account holder (as defined in Regulations section 1.1471-5(a)(3)) with respect to a financial account (as defined in Regulations section 1.1471-5(b)) that you hold at a U.S. office of a financial institution (including a U.S. branch of an FFI) and you receive U.S. source income reportable on a Form 1042-S associated with this form, you must provide on line 6a the foreign tax identifying number (FTIN) issued to you by your jurisdiction of tax residence identified on line 3 unless:

- You are a resident of a U.S. territory, or
- Your jurisdiction of residence is identified on the IRS's List of Jurisdictions That Do Not Issue Foreign TINs at IRS.gov/businesses/corporations/list-of-jurisdictions-that-do-not-issue-foreign-tins. You also do not need to provide an FTIN on line 6a if you meet the requirement for one of the requirements for checking the box in line 6b.

In addition, you may provide the FTIN issued to you by your jurisdiction of tax residence on line 6a for purposes of claiming treaty benefits (rather than providing a U.S. TIN on line 5, if required).

Line 6b. You may check the box in this line 6b if you are an account holder as described for purposes of line 6a and you are not legally required to obtain an FTIN from your jurisdiction of residence (including if the jurisdiction does not issue TINs). By checking this box, you will be treated as having provided an explanation for not providing an FTIN on line 6a. If you wish to provide a further (or other) explanation why you are not required to provide an FTIN on line 6a, you may do so in the margins of this form or on a separate statement attached to this form.

Line 7. This line may be used by the filer of Form W-8BEN or by the withholding agent to whom it is provided to include any referencing information that is useful to the withholding agent in carrying out its obligations. For example, withholding agents who are required to associate the Form W-8BEN with a particular Form W-8IMY may want to use line 7 for a referencing number or code that will make the association clear. A beneficial owner can use line 7 to include the number of the account for which he or she is providing the form. A foreign single owner of a disregarded entity can use line 7 to inform the withholding agent that the account to which a payment is made or credited is in the name of the disregarded entity (see the instructions for Line 1).

Line 8. If you are providing this Form W-8BEN to document yourself as an account holder with respect to a financial account as described above in line 6 that you hold with a U.S. office of a financial institution (including a U.S. branch of an FFI), provide your date of birth. Use the following format to input your information: MM-DD-YYYY. For example, if you were born on April 15, 1956, you would enter 04-15-1956.

Part II

Line 9. If you are claiming treaty benefits as a resident of a foreign country with which the United States has an income tax treaty for payments subject to withholding under chapter 3 or under section 1446(a) or (f), identify the country where you claim to be a resident for income tax treaty purposes. For treaty purposes, a person is a resident of a treaty country if the person is a resident of that country under the terms of the treaty. A list of U.S. tax treaties is available at IRS.gov/Individuals/International-Taxpayers/Tax-Treaties.

CAUTION

If you are related to the withholding agent within the meaning of section 267(b) or 707(b) and the aggregate amount subject to withholding received during the calendar year exceeds $500,000, then you are generally required to file Form 8833, Treaty-Based Return Position Disclosure Under Section 6114 or 7701(b), available at IRS.gov/Form8833. See the Instructions for Form 8833 for more information on the filing requirements.

Line 10. Line 10 must be used only if you are claiming treaty benefits that require that you meet conditions not covered by the representations you make on line 9 and Part III. This line is generally not applicable to treaty benefits under an interest or dividends (other than dividends subject to a preferential rate based on ownership) article of a treaty. Examples of when you must complete line 10 include:

- Persons claiming treaty benefits on royalties must complete this line if the treaty contains different withholding rates for different types of royalties,
- Foreign students and researchers claiming treaty benefits must complete this line. See Scholarship and fellowship grants, later, for more information,
- Persons claiming treaty benefits on business profits or gains that are not attributable to a permanent establishment must complete this line. See Profits or gains not attributable to a permanent establishment, later, for more information.
- Persons claiming treaty benefits pursuant to a remittance provision under a treaty must complete this line. See Remittance claims, later, for more information

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual can use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause" which preserves or "saves" the right of each country to tax its own residents as if no tax treaty existed. Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes. The individual must use Form W-9 to claim the tax treaty benefit. See the Instructions for Form W-9 for more information. Also see Nonresident alien student or researcher who becomes a resident alien, later, for an example.

Profits or gains not attributable to a permanent establishment. Persons claiming treaty benefits on business profits not attributable to a permanent establishment or on gains arising from the alienation of property (other than real property) that does not form all or part of a permanent establishment (including gains that do not arise from the alienation of a permanent establishment) must complete line 10. Complete line 10 by stating that you derive business profits or gains (other than from real property) not attributable to a permanent establishment. You must also include the relevant treaty article. For example, a foreign partner that derives gains subject to tax under section 864(c)(8) upon the transfer of an interest in a partnership that conducts a trade or business within the United States may claim treaty benefits on this form with respect to the withholding required under section 1446(f) by stating that the gains are not attributable to a permanent establishment and by including the relevant gains article of the treaty. Additionally, for a claim that gain or income with respect to a PTP interest is not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States, you must identify the name of each PTP to which the claim relates. See, however, Regulations section 1.864(c)(8)-1(f) (providing that gain or loss on the alienation of a partnership interest is gain or loss attributable to the alienation of assets forming part of a permanent establishment to the extent that the assets deemed sold under section 864(c)(8) form part of a permanent establishment of the partnership).

Remittance claims. Some income tax treaties with countries that have a remittance-based tax system only allow treaty benefits on the amount of income that is remitted to (or received in) the treaty country. An individual may use Form W-8BEN to claim benefits under those treaties only on remitted amounts that are taxable in the treaty country. If you are taxed on a remittance basis in the treaty country identified on line 9, complete line 10 by stating that you are taxed on a remittance basis in the treaty country and the amount of income you receive associated with this form that was remitted to, and is taxable in, such country. You must also provide the relevant treaty article for the remittance provision (for example, Article 1(7) of the U.S.-U.K. Treaty).

Scholarship and fellowship grants. A nonresident alien student (including a trainee or business apprentice) or researcher who receives noncompensatory scholarship or fellowship income can use Form W-8BEN to claim benefits under a tax treaty that apply to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on such income. No Form W-8BEN is required unless a treaty benefit is being claimed. A nonresident alien student or researcher who receives compensatory scholarship or fellowship income must use Form 8233, instead of Form W-8BEN, to claim any benefits of a tax treaty that apply to that income. The student or researcher must use Form W-4 for any part of such income for which he or she is not claiming a tax treaty withholding exemption. Do not use Form W-8BEN for compensatory scholarship or fellowship income. See Compensation for Dependent Personal Services in the Instructions for Form 8233.

TIP If you are a nonresident alien individual who received noncompensatory scholarship or fellowship income and personal services income (including compensatory scholarship or fellowship income) from the same withholding agent, you may use Form 8233 to claim a tax treaty withholding exemption for part or all of both types of income.

Completing lines 3 and 9. Most tax treaties that contain an article exempting scholarship or fellowship grant income from taxation require that the recipient be a resident of the other treaty country at the time of, or immediately prior to, entry into the United States. Thus, a student or researcher may claim the exemption even if he or she no longer has a permanent address in the other treaty country after entry into the United States. If this is the case, you can provide a U.S. address on line 3 and still be eligible for the exemption if all other conditions required by the tax treaty are met. You must also identify on line 9 the tax treaty country of which you were a resident at the time of, or immediately prior to, your entry into the United States.

Nonresident alien student or researcher who becomes a resident alien. You must use Form W-9 to claim an exception to a saving clause. See Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien, earlier, for a general explanation of saving clauses and exceptions to them.

Example. Article 20 of the United States-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first protocol to the United States-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would complete Form W-9.

Part III

Certification

Form W-8BEN must be signed and dated by the beneficial owner of the amount subject to withholding or the account holder of an FFI (or an agent with legal authority to act on the person's behalf). If Form W-8BEN is completed by an agent acting under a duly authorized power of attorney for the beneficial owner or account holder, the form must be accompanied by the power of attorney in proper form or a copy thereof specifically authorizing the agent to represent the principal in making, executing, and presenting the form. Form 2848 can be used for this purpose. The agent should also check the box indicating that the agent has capacity to sign for the beneficial owner. The agent, as well as the beneficial owner or account holder, may incur liability for the penalties provided for an erroneous, false, or fraudulent form.

A withholding agent may allow you to provide this form with an electronic signature. The electronic signature must indicate that the form was electronically signed by a person authorized to do so (for example, with a time and date stamp and statement that the form has been electronically signed). Simply typing your name into the signature line is not an electronic signature. A withholding agent may also rely on an electronically signed withholding certificate if you provide any additional information or documentation requested by the withholding agent to support that the form was signed by you or other person authorized to do so. See Regulations section 1.1441-1(e)(4)(i)(B).

If any information on Form W-8BEN becomes incorrect, you must submit a new form within 30 days unless you are no longer an account holder of the requester that is an FFI and you will not receive a future payment with respect to the account.

Broker transactions or barter exchanges. Income from transactions with a broker or a barter exchange is subject to reporting rules and backup withholding unless Form W-8BEN or a substitute form is filed to notify the broker or barter exchange that you are an exempt foreign person.

You are an exempt foreign person for a calendar year in which:

- You are a nonresident alien individual or a foreign corporation, partnership, estate, or trust;
- You are an individual who has not been, and does not plan to be, present in the United States for a total of 183 days or more during the calendar year; and
- You are neither engaged, nor plan to be engaged during the year, in a U.S. trade or business that has effectively connected gains from transactions with a broker or barter exchange.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to provide the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated burden for business taxpayers filing this form is approved under OMB control number 1545-0123. The estimated burden for all other taxpayers who file this form is: Recordkeeping, 3 hr., 06 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 2 hr., 05 min.; Preparing the form, 2 hr., 13 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can send us comments from IRS.gov/FormComments.

You can write to Internal Revenue Service, Tax Forms and Publications, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, IR-6526, Washington, DC 20224. Do not send Form W-8BEN to this office. Instead, give it to your withholding agent.
